Conference Proceedings

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

The One Hundred and Thirty-second Annual Session of Miami Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ assembled in the Euclid Avenue Church in Dayton, Ohio, at 9:05 a. m., on Tuesday, September 16th, 1941.

Mrs. Charles Funkhouser, organist, played improvised arrangements of familiar hymns. Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D.D., called the conference to order and to worship.

Rev. W. I. Underwood, D.D., led in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy." Rev. L. M. Hohn, D.D., led in the invocation. We read responsively Isaiah 53:1-12.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger brought a devotional message on the theme "We Belong to God." "We are God's by creation, we are his handiwork, we are his for he made us. We are God's by purchase, we are bought with a price, with the blood of Jesus Christ. We are God's by adoption, we are the children of God through Jesus Christ and through the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of adoption is the spirit of love. We need to realize that we belong to God and then to let that realization control our lives."

We sang "Come, O My Soul in Sacred Lays."

The Communion Service was in charge of Bishop Clippinger who read the scripture authority for this service. Dr. L. M. Hohn and Rev. Roy D. Miller served at the table and Reverends Ralph Tinsley, E. D. Bragg, E. R. Turner, J. P. Hendrix, C. R. Smith, J. B. Henry, G. A. Duckwall, H. G. Clark and O. O. Arnold, distributed the elements. At the close of this service, Bishop Clippinger and Rev. Dr. L. M. Hohn presided and introduced Rev. E. H. Hammon, who had charge of the Memorial Service and read the report of the Committee on Memoirs. Tributes to members of the conference who died during the year were given as follows: For Rev. D. S. Eshelman by Rev. G. W. Duckwall; for Rev. S. E. Rasey by Rev. C. R. Smith; for Rev. W. C. Andreas by Rev. C. W. Snyder.

We sang "Saved by Grace" and stood in silence honoring and remembering our departed. Rev. E. H. Hammon led in a memorial prayer. Rev. W. I. Underwood sang "Jesus, Saviour Pilot Me" to the tune "Just A'Wearying For You," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, with Rev. Wm. I. Comfort as accompanist.

(For the first time in thirty years there was no ministers quartet to furnish special music for the memorial service.)

He congratulated the conference on this fine record and urged that it be maintained if at all possible. "We must be different from the world and from the people of the world and the only force that will make people kinder and cleaner and more just and honest is faith in a righteous God." He urged the purchase and use of the study book for this year "Faith in a Righteous God." He also recommended the purchase and reading of the new edition of "Newcomer's Journal" which has been prepared by Dr. S. S. Hough. He called attention to the report blanks for church treasurers which are here to be distributed.

The following were appointed tellers: E. H. Dailey, G. W. Oliver, J. T. Channel, C. E. Benzing, G. D. Letner, A. G. O'Dell, and Clyde Jones.

Bishop Fred L. Dennis was presented and greeted with hearty applause. He expressed his great joy in being in this conference session. "This conference was royal in its welcome and fellowship when I came twenty-two years ago and has continued so through the years. A few 'Amens' might help a bit. I need a few ministers. I think I'll stay around awhile."

A motion was made and carried that the Bishops be invited to advisory seats and seated on the platform.

Bishop H. H. Fout, D.D., a member and former pastor and superintendent of Miami Conference, who has been for the last twenty-eight years Bishop of the Northwest Area of the church was presented and spoke.

"I feel much at home. I have been a member of Miami Conference for half a century. A new generation has arisen since I lived and worked with you. The memories of the early days of my ministry are sweet to me. One of the richest experiences of my life was the pastorate at Oak Street, seven hundred members were added to that church in 8 years. Those were days of prevailing prayer. Mother Wade prayed and things happened. I was superintendent of the Dayton District for two years and then editor of Sunday-school Literature for 12 years. So for twenty-two years, I kept a close and live relation with Miami Conference.

"My prayers have been with you always. I remember the great old men of this conference, W. J. Shuey, the Gladstone of Miami Conference; Dr. Daniel Berger, that beautiful spirit; and Bishop Matthews, and many others that I might mention. They are gone.

"We had a great revival of building in Miami Conference about 30 years ago. First Church and Oak Street, High Street and Fairview are some that I remember, but I must not continue in reminiscences.

"I want to leave this with you, I believe we need a new and greater emphasis on prayer. We need more praying not of beautiful words, but of deep, earnest believing, calling on God.

"The church ought to live in the first eleven chapters of Acts. They record what happened in answer to prayer. Do not let the scorn of the world destroy your faith in the victory of Jesus Christ. Let us come to our pulpits, fragrant with the aroma of the Garden of God. Lord Help Us to Pray."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger showed a copy of the Miami Conference Herald of 1910 which had on its front page a picture of eight of the older men of the conference at that time. A motion was made and carried that Miami Conference send by Bishop Fred L. Dennis our greetings to the Michigan Conference.

Hohn was declared elected superintendent for the coming year. He made a statement expressing sincere thanks for the support and loyalty of the members of the conference and the honor which they have bestowed upon him.

Rev. Clarence S. Smith read the report of the Evangelistic Commission. Rev. L. M. Hohn urged that we not only adopt this report but carry out its suggestions during the year. The report was adopted.

Col. H. E. Myers, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Publishing House spoke as representative of the Otterbein Press. "I have been a member of the Board of Publications for twenty years. These have been fateful and important years. There have been many great problems, there have been many dark days. Too much credit cannot be given to Dr. J. B. Showers, who has with courage and great wisdom carried on faithfully and successfully with heavy burdens and dark discouragements. Through his leadership, conditions have changed, 'thank God.'

"Aside from matters of finance, the effort has continually been to improve the quality and increase the circulation of our church literature. The editors did their work well." He paid special tribute to Dr. W. E. Snyder, editor of the Telescope in saying that the Telescope was never better than it now is. He wondered how 14 churches in Miami Conference could get along without a single Telescope subscription.

The editors who were present were presented. Colonel Myers closed with the words "We each have a life to live and a corner to make glad. The happiest days that I have had were the days when I rendered the greatest service to God and the Church."

Mrs. E. J. Drake, president of the Bonebrake Seminary Auxiliary, gave a brief report of the purpose and the service of that organization. Envelopes were passed and members enrolled in the auxiliary.

Dr. W. E. Snyder and Dr. S. S. Hough were introduced, and invited to advisory seats by action of the conference.

A tract "Today's Challenge to Opponents of the Liquor Traffic" was distributed.

H. G. Clark, M. B. Klepinger and Harvey Hahn made announcements.

Mr. L. C. Weimer made a statement in regard to the taxes of the U. B. Publishing House. "The Otterbein Press which is the publication plant was not on the tax duplicate for some years but now it is, but the U. B. Building always was on the tax duplicate and pays now taxes of approximately $33,000 per year."

We adjourned with prayer by Dr. S. S. Hough.

Hahn of Young People's Union and plans, Roy D. Miller of the Adult Work and Rev. Robert Copeland of plans and problems in Leadership Training.

The choir sang "Holy, Lord God."

Dr. S. G. Ziegler spoke on "Consequences of Christian Faith." We state our faith in the fatherhood of God but we sometimes fail to live the brotherhood that is the logical consequence of this faith. We profess our faith in the cross but are we willing to live the cross."

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

Rev. Wm. I. Comfort presided at the piano and played a prelude. We sang the Doxology. Rev. Ira Clark led in prayer. Rev. W. I. Underwood led in singing "Lift up the Gates of Praise" and "How Joyful is this Place."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger gave a devotional address on "Perfect Brotherhood." His scripture text was "They helped everyone his neighbor and each said to the other 'be of good cheer'." "They needed this word in Babylon and we need it today. We live in comfort but our souls are disturbed. Half the world is hungry and all the world is distressed. As we see this suffering, our hearts should be moved with a great compassion. The parable of the Good Samaritan carries a great truth for these days."

"October 6th is World Communion Sunday and we are called not only to share in this ceremony of fellowship and faith but also to share by bringing an offering for the needy and suffering around the world."

The address was closed with a fervent prayer for the suffering people of the world and for the coming of righteousness and peace.

We sang "True-Hearted, Whole-Hearted." The following were introduced: Dr. S. C. Enck, superintendent of East Pennsylvania Conference; and Rev. S. M. Snider of Nebraska Conference. By motion these were received as advisory members.

Rev. L. M. Hohn asked permission to add items to his report and this request was granted.

Rev. Harvey Hahn was excused for a funeral this afternoon.

Rev. H. G. Clark read the report of the committee on Ministerial Relief. The report was approved.

Mr. Wesley O. Clark, who is now the General Treasurer of our Denomination, spoke on "Our New Budget." "There is deep gratitude in my heart as I stand in this pulpit today. Dr. Geo. Funkhouser visited in our home and invited my mother to this church thirty-eight years ago. Because of that visit, I grew up in this church and owe more than I can ever tell to the influence that has come from it into my life."

"Faith enters all areas of life. We do because we believe. In the church and religious life this ought to be more true than it is. One area of life that shows often more than any other our true faith is our money living. Faith in God will lead to glad and generous giving. If we believe more we will give more and if we give more we will believe more."

"I am also asked to speak for the Brotherhood. The men of the church are challenged today to organize in churches, districts, and conferences as Brotherhoods to work and give with love and faith for the work of God in the church and in the world."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger named Mr. Clark as temporary chairman of a meeting for organizing a conference brotherhood.

Dr. B. F. Lamb, executive secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches and of Religious Education, spoke in the interest of that organization. He spoke on "The Power of the Protestant Church," and his address was a challenge to the church to support the cooperative program of Week-Day Religious Education. "From 1930 to 1936 church membership in the United States declined 10%. Sunday School attendance declined about 6% in that time. The best way to change these conditions is through the increase in Week-Day Religious Education. These schools have proven most effective. The problem is not money but conviction. Five dollars per child will provide an adequate sum for this work. Money would be saved, children and churches and families would be saved and a new world could be builded, if we see this need and believe and give and do."

He announced the date of the Ohio Pastors' Convention January 26-29, 1942. Rev. Daniel Brownlee was introduced and brought a word of greeting from the Dayton Council of Churches.

Miss Betty Jackson of Ginghamsburg sang "The Stranger of Galilee," and was accompanied by Mrs. Don R. Falkenberg, Jr.

Rev. S. C. Enck was introduced and spoke on "Our Ministerial Pension." "The General Conference has spoken, the laymen have spoken. It is our business if we are loyal to the program of the church to carry to successful conclusion, the ministerial Pension plan. To keep strong young men in our ministry, we must provide for some old age security. The laborer is worthy of his hire."

He explained the need, the plan and the organization. He showed graphically that we can and will succeed, but that in order to do this, we must get started and we must work. His suggestions were: "Keep groups and organizations alive, keep the goal in mind. Ministers should join the plan. Every little helps."

Questions were asked by J. L. Armstrong, E. S. Comrey, L. G. Ludwick, J. A. Pantle, E. D. Bragg, A. G. O'Dell and Arthur Peden.

Report was made that there are now 479 contributing members, and 222 non-contributing members, 320 are receiving pensions now. Contributing members are receiving $175.00 per year and non-contributing $75.00. Miami Conference has raised $25,000 or approximately 1/3 of our quota.

The Ladies' Quartet of the Ginghamsburg Church sang "My Home, Sweet Home."

Dr. S. G. Ziegler spoke on "Present Trend of the Foreign Mission Enterprise." "The source of missionary enthusiasm is not in reports but in the great commission, not in facts from the field but in faith in Jesus Christ. Passion comes from prayer and fellowship with Christ. Secure and use Worship Pathways. Let's strive to prepare our Youth for a world-wide Christian fellowship."

He presented a pamphlet "Living Pictures in the Life of Livingston" and urged its use. He also urged the use of slides and other methods of visual instruction.

In reporting regarding the present situation of our Foreign Mission Work, he said in part: "Our missionaries are by government orders returned from Japan but the workers there carry on. Our missionaries are remaining in China by their own choice. They have taken no vacations this summer. We are cooperating in new work in western China. Needs are greater than ever, conditions call for courage and sacrifice from us all."

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Overmiller, newly appointed superintendent and matron of Otterbein Home, were presented and greeted by the Conference.

Mrs. J. R. Overmiller spoke briefly. "We are glad to be here and at work in the Home. We have many interesting and beautiful children there. We mean to do our best. We ask an interest in your prayers."

Dr. J. R. Overmiller said in part: "I feel very much at home here. Otterbein Home is a beehive of activity, a center of problems and opportunities, a means of Christian service to the needy. We have Otterbein Home because of the vision of Dr. J. M. Phillippi and Dr. W. R. Funk and because of the spirit of Christian love in their hearts and in the church."

"We need improvement of our buildings, good food and clothing; but more than all that, we need and must have great men and women there, persons who are great in Christian faith and spirit. Mrs. Margaret Smith, who lately was called from the Home to her crowning was such a soul."

"In the life and spirit of the home, you may have a part. We need increased Christmas offerings but even more we need fervent prayers. We seek to give ourselves as your ministers and hope for a place in your fellowship."

Mr. W. H. Cassell, treasurer of the Otterbein Home, made a brief report. "We continue to reduce our liabilities. Our debt March 1, 1933 was $385,808.00; our debt March 1, 1941 was $169,625.00. The prospects are that we will continue to reduce this debt and we hope to be entirely out of debt by 1945. We hope for a good increase in the Christmas offering this year."

The Ginghamsburg Quartet sang "Jesus, Forever the Same."

Mr. Tytus, superintendent of the Cleveland District of the Anti-Saloon League, spoke in the interest of that work. "The national drink bill for 1939 was four and a half billion dollars. Ohio's drink bill for that year for hard liquor was sixty million dollars and for beer about as much. We have eleven drinking places for every church in Ohio."

"There are seven girls and young women serving liquor in our country for every one who is in college."

"We are still in the fight for county local option. We seek to close the road-houses out in the country that are crowded with young people until late in the night. We seek not only to legislate but to educate. We seek to get into the schools with information that will enable us to hold youth against the efforts and advertisements of this evil."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger urged the churches to cooperate with the Anti-Saloon League.

Mr. W. C. Arthur read the report of the Committee on Nominations. The report was adopted.

Mr. Arthur then read the recommendations for officers of the Miami Conference Brotherhood which are made by a meeting of men held at 1:00 p. m. today.

Rev. J. A. Pantle, the oldest living member of Miami Conference spoke. "The Conference has changed twice in personnel since I came into its membership. I was in the active service for 50 years. I have taught 27 different Sunday School classes this last year. Young men, you will have a hard row to hoe but it will make a man out of you." Reverend Pantle then repeated an original poem and led in the singing of a familiar song.

Bishop Clippinger commended Reverend Pantle saying that he was a great evangelist and a faithful pastor.

By vote of the body, the ballot was cast by the secretary of the Brotherhood for the election of officers of the Miami Conference Brotherhood for the coming year, and the following were declared elected: Clyde Demmitt, president; Ben Kitchen, vice-president; John L. Jones, secretary; and David Noggle, treasurer.

Klepinger; Treasurer, C. B. Boda; Conference Trustees, C. R. Smith, and H. G. Clark; Otterbein College Trustee, E. R. Turner; Stewardship Secretary, O. A. Stutz; Registrar, R. B. Ditmyer.

Mr. O. A. Stutz, Stewardship Secretary, had literature distributed to the pastors which has been provided by funds which were left in the Treasury of the Darke County United Brethren Sunday School Association.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger made a plea to laymen for increased pastors salaries in view of the rising cost of living.

It was voted to adjourn. Prayer and benediction were by Rev. S. C. Enck.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION

Bishop A. R. Clippinger presided. Music was furnished by the Orpheus Club, an organization of United Brethren men of Dayton who sing under the leadership of Prof. O. E. Gebhart.

Scripture and prayer were by Rev. O. O. Arnold. Addresses were in the interest of the rural church and were by Rev. G. W. Duckwall and Rev. W. I. Comfort. These two were students for five weeks this summer at the Interdenominational School for Rural Leaders at the Garrett Biblical Institute on the grounds of Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill.

Reverend Duckwall spoke on Farm Organizations and traced the rise and decline and second rise of the Grange and the growth of other farm movements. Reverend Comfort spoke on "The Rural Church—The Conscience of the Community." He defined the church as a fellowship in which the divine life may be experienced, shared and lived; and showed how this fellowship will give that basis of experience and knowledge and spirit that makes for the right conscience in a community."

The benediction was by Rev. Chas. Fryman.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

We sang the Doxology. Rev. D. E. Gillespie led in prayer and then we sang "I Need Jesus."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger brought the morning devotional message on the theme "Think On These Things." "One of the most difficult things for us to do is to think soberly, constructively and without bias. Thinking requires energy. Thoughts make a man good or bad, clean or unclean, high or low."

"We need to think of the trend of the times, of the evils and dangers in our American life. We need to think of the suffering of the world until our hearts are moved with compassion. We need to think of the good and the loving and the true."

"Think of needs and give. Think of problems and do something about them. Think of good folks with love and of good things with thanks." At the close of the address Bishop Clippinger led in prayer.

The Middletown Ladies' Quartet sang.

Dr. A. T. Howard spoke as representative of Bonebrake Seminary. "Just about 80 years ago in a meeting held in the Summit Street Church, the theological seminary of the United Brethren Church was organized with three men to gather money and two to teach. The Seminary has an honored task. We appreciate the work of the Women's Auxiliary in maintaining the rooms and equipment of the dormitory. Professor Merle Harner is doing a very successful and appreciated work in the landscaping of the grounds."

"By the end of this quadrennium the Seminary will be free from debt. The student enrollment last year was ninety-three, and we expect about one hundred students this year. The seminary is now working almost exclusively with college graduates." We face a world of great problems and great opportunities. In Asia and Europe and here in America there is and will be more need of consecrated young people than ever before. Make Seminary Cash Day a day of education as well as a day of offering."

Professor W. E. Roush was presented to the conference.

Mrs. Ruth Hendrix, president of the Miami Branch of the Woman's Missionary Association brought greetings from that organization.

"Four hundred and twenty-one are now enrolled for the fall term at Otterbein College. This is one more than were enrolled at this time last year. This is quite encouraging. We want to be helpful to the church. We believe that we have a contribution to make to youth and to this confused world."

Reverend Miller then spoke on "Attitudes that Make for Success in Work With Youth." "In working with youth accept them as they are. Let us stop thinking of them as problems. Let us beware of projecting problems into their lives. Minimize the differences between youth and adults. We need each other. "Let's give them a chance for expression and for work. Let's encourage them and see them through."

We sang "Faith of Our Fathers."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger preached on the theme "Saving Faith." The text was Romans 5:1. "Redemption through faith is the theme of the book of Romans. Salvation through the cross is Paul's gospel. We are not saved because we keep the law, but we keep the law because we are saved."

We sang "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone." Rev. Harry Sinks was ordained as an elder by Bishop A. R. Clippinger, assisted by L. M. Hohn, Walter Sinks and Harvey C. Hahn. Rev. L. M. Hohn led in the prayer of consecration.

Certificates of membership in Miami Conference were presented to C. S. Zimmerman and Charles Messmer.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger read the report of the Stationing Committee.

The conference was dismissed with prayer by Bishop Clippinger.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

It is fitting and proper that we should pause in the earliest hours of this annual conference session to pay reverent and affectionate tribute to those of our brethren in the ministry who have been taken from us by the hand of death since our last annual conference. We have done this in the past, and we shall continue in the years to come; but it is always with the firm conviction that, for the Christian, there is no real death. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

These words of assurance were imbedded in the very foundation of the personal faith and useful ministry of the three members of this conference who claimed the promise during the past year. Tributes will be presented to them by brethren who knew them a little better, perhaps, than most of us did: to Rev. D. S. Eshelman, by Rev. G. W. Duckwall; to Rev. S. E. Rasey, by C. R. Smith; and to Rev. W. C. Andreas, by Rev. C. W. Snyder.

E. H. HAMMON

TRIBUTE TO DAVID SCHANTZ ESHELMAN

He was Canadian by birth and early training, received his first license as a minister in Ontario, Canada. He was a graduate of Lebanon Valley College and Bonebrake Seminary, served pastorates in seven parishes in Pennsylvania and in five parishes in Miami.

He was active in literary society and singing groups as a young man. His was a fine Christian home that shows its Christian culture in the members of his family.

In his pastorates he was one who loved his people and really mingled among them. He was rated by his people as a man of high intelligence and fine Christian experience. In his devotion he was simple and direct—a man who earnestly worshiped the Lord he served. He was very helpful in prayer.

It was a privilege to have him in our congregation for over four years. He was a true helper and loyally did all that strength permitted in the promotion of the Kingdom. He was loved and respected by all. In his passing the community lost a fine Christian citizen, the church has lost a loyal worker and heaven has gained a noble inhabitant. Many people learned to love him and came in from various fields that he had served to express their sense of loss in his passing.

G. W. DUCKWALL

TRIBUTE TO S. E. RASEY

Another comrade has fallen from our ranks. Rev. Sidney E. Rasey passed to his crowning from the Otterbein Home, April 6, 1941, at the age of 62 years. He graduated with the Class of 1900 from Bonebrake Seminary. He was active in the ministry 39 years. He served for eleven years in the East Ohio Conference and West Nebraska Conference. He came to Miami Conference in the year of 1911 and served the following charges: Lewisburg, East Dayton, New Madison, Greenville, Hartford St., Oakwood, Beavertown and West Manchester.

Brother Rasey will be remembered as a lover of good books. He enjoyed reading and read many of them. Few of the brethren of the conference read as many books per year as did this servant of God. He also gave much time to the reading of the Word and enjoyed working out new sermons, rather than repeating those he had used on former occasions.

He was also loyal to his denomination. I never heard him speak disparingly of his own communion. He believed in the Church that had presented him with credentials to preach the Word and gave his life to the Church that was so dear to his heart. He remarked to me more than once that we had a just right to be proud of our heritage and the faith of the founders of our communion.

He was without question a team worker. Working with Brother Rasey in the East District while he served the Oakwood and Beavertown charges, I always found him ready to cooperate and seemed to be eager to fellowship with the brethren in his district.

He was faithful. This is one of the attributes of Christian character. He was faithful to his family, to his church and to his Lord. The promise is, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

C. R. SMITH

TRIBUTE TO REV. W. C. ANDREAS

I am glad for this privilege to bear tribute to the life of my neighbor in Christian service for the last few years.

Rev. William Charles Andreas has given the last thirty years of his life to the ministry, the greater part of which has been in Miami Conference where thirteen churches have been blest through his ministry.

His work as a pastor in this conference began in 1912 at North Bend and closed at Eldorado in 1940. Because of ill health he retired to the Otterbein Home with Mrs. Andreas who in their pastoral work has been a loyal and very efficient helper. They were very faithful in home visitation.

Reverend Andreas was a good song leader as well as an evangelistic preacher and his ministry has been characterized by many fruitful revivals. The Lord has given him many souls for his hire.

Miami Conference hereby expresses her appreciation of his good work, and extends her heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Andreas who resides and serves at the Otterbein Home, and to his son Earl of New York City.

Reverend Andreas' body rests in the beautiful Otterbein Home cemetery, and his soul rests in triumph with his Lord in Glory.

C. B. BODA, Conference Treasurer.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT

To our beloved Bishop, co-laborers in the ministry and faithful laymen of our great Conference: Greetings in the name of our loving Lord and Master. This day we stand at the close of another year and at the threshold of the new year. We take leave of the record we have made, that we may see how far we have come since we last met in conference session and turn to attain new heights in kingdom building.

I. OUR MINISTERS AND THEIR FAMILIES

The families in the manses of our conference have fared well in the main. There has been some sickness, a little serious yet nothing that was of a critical nature. There have been a few hospital experiences and a few minor illnesses thrown in for good measure.

Death has come to three of our retired ministers, Rev. Eshelman, Rev. Rasey and Rev. Andreas passed away during the year and fitting services have been held in their honor.

Son, David, came to live with Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Quick; William, came to live with Rev. and Mrs. Wm. K. Messmer; Kathleen came to make her home with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Messmer.

Rev. Stanley Forkner and Rev. E. L. Smith sallied forth the fair sex to win and each took unto himself a wife. Congratulations and best wishes to all.

The year records three resignations. The General Conference invaded our ranks and took out Rev. F. L. Dennis and Rev. O. O. Arnold, one to be bishop and the other to be Associate Editor of our Sunday School Literature. Rev. J. Leonard Broadstone resigned the Aley-Harshman charge to enter the United States Army as a chaplain. Dr. C. W. Brewbaker was appointed to fill the pastorate at First Church until conference or to the appointment of a pastor at First Church. Prof. M. Harner later took up the work at Germantown to carry it to this conference session. Rev. C. R. Miller was appointed to the work at Aley and Harshman.

Quarterly conference licenses were renewed to: Mrs. Mary Bierly, Revs. Harold Halderman, Howard R. James, Kenneth Kraft, Charles Messmer, C. C. Potts, Robert Leo Pearce, Walter Racke, Paul P. Reber, Clifford Stearns, Rudolph H. Thomas, James H. Weaver, David C. Woodburn, and C. S. Zimmerman.

Quarterly conference license to preach was granted to Harold J. Messmer of the Newport church.

The following young men were recommended to the annual conference: Rev. C. S. Zimmerman and Charles Messmer.

Our ministers have done faithful work during the year. They have prepared and preached 7,183 sermons, made 39,137 pastoral calls and read 2,070 books. They have married 731 couples, baptized 958 persons and conducted 940 funerals. For their faithfulness they have received as salary $138,718.00. They have received into the church fellowship 1,560 members and saw 1,038 conversions. The membership of the conference has reached 28,043. There are 59 regular pastors, six part time pastors, and 20 student pastors working in our conference.

II. OUR LAYMEN

We have many consecrated and faithful laymen who are standing by the cause of Christ as it is represented in our church. They have been faithful as is evidenced in the reports sent in by their pastors. The average attendance at the morning worship services is 9,150, and at the evening services 3,287. The Sunday School enrollment is 23,132 with an average attendance of 13,200. There has been maintained 59 Christian Endeavor societies, 19 Intermediate societies, and 16 Junior societies. There are 85 Women's Missionary societies, 65 Otterbein Guilds, 91 Ladies' Aids and 20 Brotherhoods. There are 109 Sunday Schools, 87 Cradle Rolls, 36 Training Classes, 9 Week Day Schools, 25 Vacation Church Schools. Seventy-one churches have been repaired, 52 parsonages have come in for their part in repairs. Twenty-nine churches paid on debts and 13 paid on parsonage debts. Three churches are in the process of putting up new buildings or remodeling the old. Cherry Grove and Mt. Airy installed Orgatrons. The Maple Park and Residence Park churches are coming into fulltime pastoral leadership.

Our laymen have made possible through their generosity repairs and redecorations at Arcanum, Ithaca, Ginghamsburg, Otterbein (Dayton), Olivet, Piqua, Willey Memorial and Ft. McKinley. The New Madison and Harshman churches are under the necessity of building new houses of worship, New Madison having lost its church by fire and Harshman lost its church to the United States government in the expansion of Wright Field. The Beavertown church is now in its building program, rebuilding and adding to its present structure. The Clough church is building a parsonage at the cost of about $7,500.00. The Belmont educational unit is nearing completion. The second floor was dedicated September 7. The Miami Chapel church has installed a new Hammond organ, the Norris Memorial church has installed an Orgatron and the Fairview church has installed a new Moller pipe organ.

III. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND EVANGELISM.

Our conference in cooperation with God maintained three camps for the purpose of making for better preparation in Christian work. One camp was at Sugar Grove for adults and adult workers with children, the second was at Camp Campbell Gard for ministers of our conference, the third was the Bonebrake Camp at the Seminary. Two of these were new ventures on the part of the Council of Religious Education.

The idea of a permanent camp for Miami Conference is still alive and taking the attention of the committee. More will be said concerning this project in other reports. As to evangelism, our churches have done well in their attempt to win others. They have proceeded on plans of using all methods to bring results. Since the three accepted methods are producing, let it be that we continue in them for greater successes.

IV. OUR ATTITUDE TOWARD BENEVOLENCES.

Our attitude toward Benevolences has been good in the past year. Two years ago we paid 73% of our quota, one year ago we paid 78.8% of the quota and this year we paid 82.4% of the quota. This means that the increase is $2,903.60 this year over the giving of last year. It should be stated that this has been possible because of a growing interest in the cause of Christ outside of our local communities.

V. YOUR SUPERINTENDENT'S ACTIVITIES.

I have had the co-operation of the ministers and the churches in the work of His church as represented in our conference. It has been my privilege to serve in and out of the conference. I have conducted 176 quarterly conferences, spoken at three homecomings, attended 56 committee meetings and six state council meetings. I have conducted two evangelistic services, attended four General Conference Committee meetings, the General Conference, and attended the Christian Education Convention in Mexico City. It was my honor to speak at the East Ohio and the Sandusky conferences this fall. I have preached thirty sermons outside of revival meetings, given 156 devotional talks, taken part in three funerals and two weddings. Seventeen district meetings were attended and many conferences with individuals and groups.

CONCLUSION.

Let us remind ourselves of the slogan for this first year of the new Quadrennium, "Faith in a Righteous God," with the general theme for the next four years "Our Abiding Faith." Also let us use as nearly as possible the dates suggested by the last General Conference for our period emphases.

May God bless you in the name of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

SOME OBSERVATIONS AND COMPARISONS BY THE STATISTICAL SECRETARY

A slight discrepancy will be noted between the conference treasurer's report of designated gifts and the report submitted herewith. This is explained by the fact that Pastors' Reports were made in even dollars, while the Treasurer reported both dollars and cents.

Several pastors sent in their reports on antiquated blanks. Therefore such items as average attendance, number of enrolled tithers, number in catechetical classes will not show in their reports.

Twenty-one (21) churches reported no "balance in treasuries." May we suggest the importance of this item being included in the annual report. "No Balance" in any treasury indicates an insolvent condition, whereas a balance reported reveals a condition of financial health.

Twenty-two churches reported no accessions on Confession of Faith.

Membership. There is a net increase of 2,195 in the past ten years and 7,036 in the past twenty years. This small increase seems due, not so much to a loss of evangelistic fervor, as to a more careful revising of church records.

Tithers. Twenty years ago, the Statistical Secretary reported 1,365 tithers. This year 716. But 62 churches give no report on the number of tithers this year. A fuller report on this item will no doubt reveal a considerable increase over two decades ago.

Contributing Members have increased 222, or an average of a little more than 2 per church.

Sunday-school attendance continues to decline slightly. Average attendance is 575 less than last year. Yet the Sunday School continues as the great evangelistic field of the church. Half of our church accessions the past year came by way of the Sunday School.

The total number of Women's Societies and Brotherhoods remains about the same as a year ago. There are ten more C. E. Societies or Junior Churches reported.

Vacation Church Schools again show an increase. This year there were two more Vacation Church Schools than reported last year, and 221 more in attendance. Twenty-eight churches reported catechetical classes. This is a new item in the report blank and will indicate the work done in a long neglected field of evangelistic endeavor.

United Brethren literature used shows an increase of 650 pieces. Other literature used shows an increase of 45 pieces.

Circulation of the Miami Messenger is at the highest point in its existence with every church in the conference reporting subscriptions. Eleven churches report no Telescope subscriptions.

Pastors' salaries received total more than contracted for. Only four pastors reported salary not paid in full. Eighteen pastors were paid more than contracted for.

The churches of the conference paid for all local purposes $42,560 more than last year and $88,109 more than five years ago.

We seem to be in a period of church-debt paying and church remodeling. A total of $26,056 more was paid for these purposes than reported a year ago. The total for all purposes is 12% more than last year and about 17% more than two years ago.

"Balance in Treasuries" is nearly $8,000 more than last year while the current operating debt of the churches is $1,100 less.

Commendation is again due the pastors for promptness in sending in reports. The Northeast District was the first to have all reports in.

Respectfully submitted,

MURN B. KLEPINGER,
Statistical Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EVANGELISTIC COMMISSION

"God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in his Son" What a proclamation! What a revelation in this Scripture! Jesus Christ is Gods' profoundest and most wonderful message to man—not what Jesus said—but Jesus Himself. He is the central and supreme theme of all the Scriptures. He is the truth and the life of the gospel. He is the Way to the Father.

In Jesus Christ God unveiled, God revealed, God made known His glorious character. He spoke forth His hatred for sin, His judgment upon it, but over against that, His infinite compassion for the guilty sinner. He revealed the intense yearning of His great heart of love for a lost world. He said, "This is my beloved Son, hear him." And the Son said, "I am come that ye might have life," "I lay down my life for the sheep."

Jesus laid down His life FOR the sheep that he might give His life TO the sheep. Our redemption is through the precious blood of Christ, of the eternal covenant, shed on the cross. Him hath God raised up from the dead, and gave him glory. Herein lies the very heart of the gospel. Herein is wisdom. Christ's death, burial, and resurrection are "the key of knowledge." Though a sinful world knows nothing of these great basic facts of the gospel, has no experiencial knowledge of them, they give to believing sinners redemption, regeneration, and resurrection. The gospel of Christ is their interpretation (I Cor. 15:1-4).

To the Church of Jesus Christ has been committed this glorious gospel. As members of His church we are identified with Him in the great basic facts of the gospel—crucified, buried, and risen with Him, and it is our engagement to tell an ignorant world of Him. Christ is the world's only hope. The world needs Christ now—today. But the members of Christ's great body, the Church, are slow in telling the world of Christ. They are too busy with selfish interests to give attention to the central and supreme theme of the Scriptures. Therefore the world's ignorance is the fruit of the Church's neglect.

Neglect indicates a need. There is need for revival, a revival within the Church—a revival of doctrinal and ethical preaching, a revival of Bible reading, and of sacrificial giving, and prayer, and regularity in attendance upon the means of grace which God has provided to satisfy the hunger of starving souls. It is Christ's way for us.

A revival such as this will result in evangelism. A revival will stimulate the spirit of evangelism in the churches. It will also develop a spiritual emphasis and power in the churches to hold those already taken in. It will develop a far-reaching program of conference extension, the establishment of churches in new and needy fields. Our suggestion is that our churches seek to bring to pass such a revival.

As to the matter of evangelism the methods of this line of Christian activity are various and varied and well known to all. Each of the several charges throughout the conference has its own problems, each its own advantages. We suggest that the church give careful consideration to the method or methods best suited to local conditions. And in conclusion, we suggest that the pastors and delegates turn back to the most excellent report of the Evangelistic Commission of one year ago and profit by a practical application of its recommendations (pages 44, 45, Conference Minutes, 1940).

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF IN THE CONFERENCE

Your committee has made a study of this work as recorded in the conference minutes for the last twent-five years. Over this long period there has been scarcely a single year when the conference could answer every appeal and do as much for the applicant as it wanted to do because of the limited amount of money appropriated to this item.

In 1914, there were only 13 applicants for relief. The total amount appropriated to this fund was $1,372. The total benevolence budget for that year was only $21,912. Seventy-one charges paid 86.6 percent of the budget. The smallest appropriation then to an individual was $50 per year and the largest was $300.

The total conference appropriation for ministerial relief reached a maximum in 1925 and 1926 when it amounted to $4,000. The conference benevolence budget was then $65,000. The amount paid towards the budget in 1926 was $45,302.

In the year 1940 we received 20 applications for relief. The total amount appropriated to this fund was $3,200. During the past 25 years the total amount appropriated for relief was over $67,000, an average of $2,686 per year.

At the present time an applicant for relief is not required to fill out a questionnaire giving an itemized account of his annual income. The application mailed each year is in the form of a request. Your committee recommends that this method be continued and that every request be given careful consideration by the committee on appropriations.

We know that we express the sincere feeling of the entire membership of the conference when we say that we are happy to render a little assistance to those whose income has been cut off by retirement or other reasons and regret more than words can tell that the money for this item is always limited by so many different demands on the conference treasury and by a benevolence budget that is not paid in full.

We recommend that a committee be appointed to make a further study of this phase of the conference work.

Over a period of 25 years reviewed by the committee it was observed that many special offerings have been received at conference time to apply on this fund. We recommend that this same thing be done in this Annual Conference session.

G. W. DUCKWALL,

GREETINGS FROM MIAMI BRANCH

Someone has said that "he who has what the world needs is debtor to the world." The public condemns the man who has the remedy which a sick man needs and yet does not share it with him. So God condemns the church which has the message of Jesus but neglects to share it with others. To be a Christian is to be a missionary so women and girls of the Women's Missionary Association and you who are ministers and laymen are debtors to the world and should share this message with others. Too many of us are not conscious of our responsibility, at least we do not show it.

It is the policy of our Branch to encourage our women and girls to co-operate in every way possible with their pastors in the program of the local church. Likewise, we beg of you who are pastors to co-operate with us. Won't you be courteous and reply to correspondence when received? Too often when trying to interest some pastors in helping to promote missionary organizations we receive no reply. We do appreciate what you have done but this year especially do we want a bit more. During our convention next year we will celebrate the seventieth anniversary of the beginning of our Branch, so we are eager to enlist more women and girls in our Association. In the Miami Conference we have twenty-three churches that have no Women's Missionary organizations and twenty-six have no Otterbein Guild chapters. Our goal for the year is a net increase of three new societies and a net increase of one hundred new members. With some enthusiasm and encouragement from the pastors of these churches we have faith to believe that we can reach our goals. Will not you who are pastors of such churches help us by emphasizing the importance of missions and missionary education, and urge the women and girls of your churches to organize so that they too can share in sending the message around the world?

In closing, may I bring to you the greetings of 4500 women and girls of our association and pledge to you our willingness to share, gladly, in our common task.

RUTH HENDRIX.

REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

That the conference may realize the Historical Committee has been active during the past year, we wish to submit this outline report of our activities:

1. The Miami Conference Minutes of 1810 to 1866 are almost all transcribed from the original handwritten copies which are fast fading away, and will soon await publication in some form for future use. There are yet a few sessions to be translated from German before this task is complete, but when these minutes are published the old original books may be placed in a safe place where they will no longer be handled.

2. A synopsis of each session of Miami Conference, with the exception of the untranslated sessions, has been prepared, approximately 100 books have been studied for historical data, the Religious Telescopes and other papers have been scanned, and much valuable material has been compiled in anticipation of the publication of a History of Miami Conference. By the end of this month we expect to have a complete list of all members of Miami Conference since 1810 to date, with the year of entrance, how entered, and when the membership ceased.

3. The committee has written a history for one local church, and has assisted two other churches in securing important information.

4. We have also secured for the conference archive the ordination certificate of Bishop Lewis Davis, signed by Bishop Henry Kumler, Jr.; a copy of a first issue United Brethren Almanac; several photographs and minor material.

5. We have been called on for service outside the regular duties assigned, some folks using the Committee as a means of contacting national historical organizations for information along certain lines.

6. The secretary was of assistance in securing data for a man in Pennsylvania. Despite all that has been written about Bishop Joseph Hoffman and his outstanding work, no mention was ever made of the names of his parents, although references as to the spiritual life of these parents are often discovered. At the request of the Otterbein Press Circulation Manager, who had been asked for assistance, we made thorough search and found the thing that our church historians have been searching for for years, the names of Bishop Hoffman's parents, born some 200 years ago.

We are always ready to receive anything of historical import to this conference. We would like a complete set of conference minutes from 1867 to date, that being the year when the minutes were first published. Any item you feel would interest us, we will be glad to receive. Especially should we have some material about or from the Germantown Church since this is the cradle of the conference.

We seek the continued support of the conference.

We want to help the churches in securing historical data as far as we can. Call on us for help. We are at your service.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER G. PECK, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE POLICY COMMITTEE

The Policy Committee recommends that the following be the Policy of the Miami Conference for the year 1941-42:

A. Worship.
1. That pastors and church officials continue to improve the atmosphere, content and spirit of public worship. That pastors carefully prepare every part of the service and that worshippers come to God's House and encourage their fellow worshippers and leader by a reverent attitude and intelligent attention.
2. That churches study the needs of their community and provide opportunities for worship that will reach the largest possible group. That churches seek to provide activities which will help people use the Sabbath constructively.
3. That, as far as possible, every Church cooperate in the plan of the Federal Council of Churches to observe October 5 as World-wide Communion Sunday.
4. That ministers shall lead their churches in a fitting observance of Labor Sunday, Race Relations Sunday and Armistice Sunday in order that people may be led to think with the mind of Christ on the important issues to be considered on these days.
5. That all pastors be required to report Sunday School and Worship attendance on the Monday following the last Sunday of each month to the editor of "The Miami Messenger," who shall provide cards to every pastor.
6. That the Conference Superintendent prepare a mimeographed blank for recording the weekly attendance in the various services and that such blanks, properly filled out, shall become a part of the Successor's Record.

B. Christian Education.
1. That all Churches use the booklet "Faith in a Righteous God."
2. That the program suggested by the Conference Board of Christian Education be the Conference Christian Education program, said program to be promoted by the Directors of this Board.
3. That every church have designated representatives at the Miami Conference Christian Education Institute to be held at the First United Brethren Church, Hamilton, Ohio, October 18, 1941, and to the other camps, conferences and retreats promoted by the Board of Christian Education.
4. That the Conference Board of Christian Education publish quarterly in "The Miami Messenger" a list of books on various aspects of church work.
5. That our Conference and local churches cooperate with the Ohio Council of Churches and Religious Education, and with county and city councils in promoting their program.

9. That pastors and Young People's Directors direct young people to Otterbein College and that they send the names and addresses of High School Juniors and Seniors who are considering attending college.

C. Finance.
1. That the Conference Benevolence goal be "quotas paid in full." That the Superintendent be instructed to check plans of local churches to raise their quota in the Quarterly Conference.
2. That each Church have a finance committee, an "Every Member Canvass," observe all special days with an educational emphasis, and where necessary to insure a full budget, take a special offering on these days.
3. That the regular monthly remittance of benevolence money be made to the Conference Treasurer by Thursday noon following the last Sunday of the month.
4. That in the monthly benevolence reports in "The Miami Messenger" the churches be rated according to a plan mutually satisfactory to the editor of "The Miami Messenger" and the treasurer of the Conference.
5. That all churches reach 75% of their quotas on the Ministerial Pension Fund by August 31, 1942. That churches having already reached this goal, or nearly so, should set their stakes ahead and strive toward a one hundred per cent payment. Plans of local churches to raise their quota to be checked by the Conference Superintendent in the Quarterly Conferences.
6. That Churches avoid reduction of salary when they change pastors.
7. That in view of the rising cost of living, church officials canvass the possibility of raising pastors' salaries.
8. That every charge employing a full time pastor be urged to pay a minimum salary of $1,500.00 and house; that the Conference Superintendent instruct quarterly conferences as to this policy.
9. That every full-time pastor give full time to his work and building up the parish rather than ekeing out a low salary with outside work thus making a full-time church part-time. That our administrators and churches be less lenient in giving permission to pastors to assume other regular work.
10. That a stewardship study class be held in each church.
11. That churches accept their quota for the Otterbein College heating plant and immediately pay the first third.
12. That churches begin to promote the Christmas Offering for the Otterbein Home early in the Conference year and that each church set as their goal a substantial increase in their gift. That we give full recognition to the Otterbein Home Auxiliary giving to it a place in the organization of each local church.

D. The Ministry.
1. That we hold the highest standards for ourselves in regards to the ministry.
2. That all ministers attend the Conference Sessions and district meetings.
3. That the Conference Superintendent instruct student ministers in the proper method of reporting on the various blanks provided. That in view of the fact that student ministers are excused from Seminary Classes to attend Conference and District Meetings, students be faithful in attendance.
4. That student pastorates be limited to four years.
5. That students from Miami Conference be given preferential treatment by the Stationing Committee.
6. That we refrain from inviting students from other Conferences to join our Conference until their graduation and the presentation of their credentials.

E. Church Members.
1. That pastors and churches be more interested in saving church members to the Denomination and to the Kingdom than in merely holding on to names. That, therefore, the names and addresses of members moving into another community be sent to a pastor in the community to which they have gone.

2. That we put forth this year an earnest effort to transfer all non-resident members to a church in the community in which they live.
3. That we strive, as soon as possible, to inaugurate a program of instruction for all persons before receiving them into church membership.

F. General.

1. That the report of the Evangelistic Commission be the program of Evangelism for this conference year. That this Commission give support to churches in their program of evangelism wherever possible.
2. That we look with favor upon the recommendation of the Conference Superintendent making Miami Conference ministers available for evangelistic service in Home Mission Churches.
3. That all pastors shall preach next Sunday in pulpits to which they are assigned by this conference.
4. That the Conference Superintendent continue to direct the Historical Committee in laying plans for gathering and preserving vital historical materials of the conference and its churches.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We, the Miami Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ in this one hundred and thirty-second session assembled, thankful to Almighty God for his continuing benefits and trusting to the leadership of the Holy Spirit in planning and carrying on the work of the conference for the coming year do, hereby, sincerely resolve:

1. That we openly express our thanksgiving to God for His continuing faithfulness in supplying our every need; for the leadership of His Spirit in our personal lives and in the work of His Kingdom; for the inspiration of the Holy Scriptures; and for the fellowship of prayer which is ours in the name of our Lord and Master.

2. That we express to our beloved Bishop our acknowledgement of his fine masterful leadership through the sessions of our conference; our highest appreciation of his inspirational messages; and our happy satifaction in his patience, kindliness, faithfulness and fairness in dealing with his fellowmen.

3. That we record our pleasure in the fellowship in council and in the work of the conference which we have found in our superintendent and pledge to him our confidence, our support, and our cooperation for the coming year.

4. That we support all interdenominational organizations and movements with which we have, heretofore, been affiliated.

5. That we continue as pastors and laymen to emphasize the righteousness of Sabbath observance and that we take a most definite stand against the liquor traffic and its attendant evils but by cooperating with already established movements and organizations and a personal, individual, active position relative to them.

6. That we express to the "press" of the city our appreciation of and thanks for the fine courtesy shown us in the publicity they have given.

7. That we express to Rev. and Mrs. Miller and to the members of the Euclid Avenue Church our thanks in appreciation of the courteous and pleasing entertainment provided for us.

8. That we pledge ourselves to the continued efforts in the promotion of peace and harmony among all men and nations; and to give ourselves individually and unitedly to definite prayer for the building of the kingdom of peace and righteousness through all the earth.

9. That, deploring the existing conditions of war torn nations and peoples, we express our deepest sympathy in deed, as well as prayer, for the relief of such suffering.

10. That we as a conference and as individual churches pledge ourselves to full cooperation with the quadrennial program recently set up by our general conference, accepting this program as a unit no part of which can be neglected without weakening the whole plan and concept.

11. That, in this time of confusion in thinking and emotional reaction to the challenges to our established institutions—social, moral, political and religious—by all kinds of propaganda and insidious, sentimental appeal, we give ourselves to definite, sane thinking as the basis for Christian Living.

12. That, since no definite action was taken by the recent General Conference relative to conscientious objectors to conscription, each church act according to its best judgment.

13. That, as many other churches are doing, we give some study as to the advisability of holding our Annual Conference session in a spring month.

14. That, we express to our visiting guest speakers our appreciation of the inspiration of their messages, especially those from our general departments giving us a better understanding of our general church work.

Respectfully submitted,
Committee on Resolutions,
A. E. LANDIS, Chairman.
